Supplemental Instruction

The Supplemental Instruction (SI) program provides peer-facilitated study sessions led by qualified and trained undergraduate SI leaders who attend classes with students and encourage students to practice and discuss course concepts in sessions. Sessions are open to all students who want to improve their understanding of the material, as well as their grades. The SI schedule is posted online and updated weekly on their website.

Phone: 803-777-1000
Email: student.success@sc.edu

Peer-Tutoring

The course-specific tutoring is available to undergraduate students, generally for upper-level courses, in groups of 3 to 5 students. All tutors are certified through the College Reading and Learning Association (CRLA). You can find more information by visiting the Peer Tutoring website.

Phone: 803-777-1000
Email: student.success@sc.edu

Academic Coaching & Engagement (ACE)

The Academic Coaching and Engagement (ACE) Program offers all students at the University of South Carolina an opportunity to learn and apply the skills needed to succeed in college. ACE provides free academic success coaching, writing consultations, math tutoring, and a variety of other resources to help students at Carolina reach their academic goals.

Phone: 803-777-1000
Email: student.success@sc.edu

Off Campus Student Services (OCSS)

OCSS was established in 2008 to connect with and provide support services to off-campus students in an effort to improve their on- and off-campus experiences. This office offers resources related to leasing/renting, parking/transportation, safety, student life & activities, trash & recycling.

Phone: 803-777-3366
Email: saocss@mailbox.sc.edu

Student Disability Services

The Office of Student Disability Services empowers students to manage challenges and limitations imposed by disabilities. Our professionally trained staff provides students with exceptional services as they transition to college or continue their studies at the University. The office serves students with learning, physical, health, or psychiatric disabilities in managing the varying demands of the University experience. In addition to serving students, the staff assists the University community in making programs, services, and activities accessible for everyone.

Phone: 803-777-6142
Email: sasds@mailbox.sc.edu

www.sa.sc.edu/ssc/tsspsupport/

The University of South Carolina is an equal opportunity institution.
Office of Multicultural Student Affairs
The Office of Multicultural Student Affairs advocates for a welcoming, accepting, inclusive and supportive environment for students across multiple dimensions of diversity by implementing programs and cultural services which promote social justice and awareness.
Phone: 803-777-7716
Email: samosa@mailbox.sc.edu

Greek Life
Carolina Fraternity and Sorority Life totals over 4,000 members, making up over 20% of the overall student body. Fraternity and Sorority Council represent 39 Greek organizations. All of the chapters have their own rituals, traditions, and philanthropies, but they all strive to live by Carolina Fraternity and Sorority Life’s four core values of scholarship, leadership, service, and friendship.
Phone: 803-777-3506
Email: sagreeks@mailbox.sc.edu

Financial Literacy
The goal of the Financial Literacy Program is to help USC students and their families improve their understanding of financial concepts and services so they are empowered to make informed choices and take action to improve their present and long-term financial well-being. The Financial Literacy Program offers outreach to students in the form of seminars, workshops, and consultations on a number of financial literacy topics.
Phone: 803-777-1000
Email: student.success@sc.edu

Campus Recreation
Campus Recreation maintains two facilities enclosing 400,000 square feet of space. The Solomon Blatt Physical Education Center (PEC) is located in the middle of the campus, adjacent to the large recreational field complex. The newer Strom Thurmond Wellness & Fitness Center (WFC) is set on the south west corner of Assembly and Blossom Streets. Both facilities feature open recreation areas for basketball, volleyball, badminton, racquetball, handball, and squash, as well as group exercise classes. The WFC also features an indoor climbing wall and Outdoor Recreation Office for trip planning.
Phone: 803-576-9375

Student Government Association
The Student Government Association (SGA) is dedicated to the advancement and development of all undergraduate students at the University of South Carolina. It serves to advocate on behalf of the interests of all 21,000 undergraduate students at the University of South Carolina. SGA works closely with administrators, faculty and staff to achieve its goals.
Phone: 803-777-2654
Email: sastgov@mailbox.sc.edu

Career Center
The Career Center offers students one-on-one appointments with students to offer resume and cover letter critiques, presentations on a variety of career related topics, “Discovery Tools” designed to help students decide on a major or career, job shadowing and internship experience, a comprehensive career library, mock interviews to help prepare students for employment or graduate/professional school interviews, and both campus-wide and college specific job fairs.
Phone: 803-777-7280
Email: career@sc.edu
Student Health Services
Student Health Services provides University of South Carolina students confidential, on-campus medical, psychological and wellness resources including doctors, psychologists, counselors and specialists who understand the unique health needs of college students. Student Health Services includes the Counseling & Human Development Center, Psychiatric Services, General Medicine Center, Women’s Care, Campus Wellness, Sexual Assault and Violence Intervention & Prevention.
Phone: 803-777-3175

Office of Student Organizations
The Office of Student Organizations is the backbone of support for all student organizations from inception to official recognition providing guidance and assistance in their daily functions. There are over 400 registered student organizations that students can choose from to become involved in and gain valuable leadership skills.
Phone: 803-777-2654
Email: so@mailbox.sc.edu