Unauthorized use of materials or information of any type or the unauthorized use of any electronic or mechanical device in connection with the completion of any academic work.

Document Fabrication/ Alteration
Fabricating documents (such as Doctor’s Notes and Police Reports) is a violation of the Lying policy. Altering documents (such as altering a professor's emails) will also be considered a violation of the Lying policy. If the student produces fraudulent documentation, that documentation may be turned over to legal authorities (depending on the subject matter).

"White Lies"
Lying in any form is a serious violation of the Honor Code (the Academic Integrity Policy). Whether it is a lie about a small matter or a large one, lying erodes the trust between a student and professor and tarnishes the student's academic reputation. Be truthful about class attendance, reasons why you need to miss a test, and the points you are entitled to on an exam.

Attendance Documentation
Signing another student's name on an attendance documentation sheet or requesting that someone sign an attendance documentation form for you is not permitted under this policy.
