LGBTQ DISCUSSION GROUPS

Facilitated every other week by LGBT Peer Advocates, our open discussion groups provide opportunities for folks who share similar aspects of identity to come together, build community, and learn from one another.

Being an LGBTQ Person of Color
Thursdays, 9/3, 9/17, 10/1, 10/15, 10/29, 11/12, and 12/3
NOON | RH 309
This discussion group provides a safe and supportive space for gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, queer, and questioning people who identify as people of color to build a community of support and understanding. Contact Brandon Byrd (bbyrd@email.sc.edu) and Joseph Sewell (sewellmj@email.sc.edu) for more information.

I Can See Queerly Now
Mondays, 8/31, 9/14, 9/28, 10/12, 10/26, 11/9, and 11/23 (11/23 will meet in RH House 348)
6 pm | RH 309
A safe space for queer, bi, pan, demi, asexual, polysexual, curious, questioning, sexually fluid, non-monosexual, gender non-conforming, genderfluid, genderqueer, pangender, demigender, agender, polygender, intersex, androgy nous, demienby, third gender (neutrois), polyamorous, and anyone fitting outside of a binary within the LGBTQ+ community. Facilitators intend to create a space that affirms, respects, and gives the floor to people with these identities to discuss issues affecting the community. Contact Caleb Coker (cokercb2@email.sc.edu) and Clarie Randall (randallt@email.sc.edu) for more information.

Intersectional Allyship
Thursdays, 8/27, 9/10, 9/24 (meet in Russell House 203), 10/8, 10/22, 11/5, 11/19, and 12/3
6 pm | RH 301
Intersectional Allyship is a discussion group designed to help straight and/or cisgender allies, as well as folks who identify as part of the community, learn about relevant issues and improve their ability to make a difference at Carolina. The Intersectional Allyship discussion group will also provide support for allies and give an opportunity to discuss the various challenges allies face when acting in solidarity with marginalized communities. Contact Shelby Clemmer (sclemmer@email.sc.edu) and Megan Taylor (meganjt@email.sc.edu) for more information.
